Good evening

I would like to welcome all of you here tonight.

I am very pleased to have you here in Chester County.

I first want to thank you for the confidence you have placed in me to serve as President of the Deputy Sheriffs' Association of Pennsylvania. I promise that I will do my best to serve the association and the deputies to the best of my ability, as we work together on our mission and with our motto of "all deputies, one voice". I promise to keep my remarks brief, giving my time to our guest speaker, Sheriff Greg Champagne of St. Charles Parish, Louisiana.

I want to thank Philadelphia Chief Deputy Sheriff Paris Washington for his service and leadership. Paris and his wife, Mary or Carol, have been a great part of the DSAP and its success. Not only do I respect them professionally, but I also consider them good friends and have always appreciated their support.

I would like to recognize the command staff of the Chester County Sheriff's Office.

Please stand:

Chief Deputy Jason Suydam,

Lt. Adam Sibley

Law Enforcement Liaison Donna Walton

Special Investigator Butch Dutter.

Butch is also past president of the Chester County FOP Lodge 11

As I begin my tenure as DSAP President, I am looking forward to promoting cooperation among all law enforcement agencies as well as the citizens we serve. In today's world, I feel we need to reinforce the bonds that already exist on a local, state and national level.

Strengthening the communication with our own deputies, the Deputy Sheriffs' Association of Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania Sheriffs' Association and the National Sheriffs' Association will benefit all of us. There are many differences in Sheriff's Offices across the commonwealth and across the nation. We are different in size and in the duties we perform. But one thing we all have in common is that we serve the citizens.

Our sheriffs are elected by the people, and as deputies we serve with our sheriff and protect those citizens in our courts, our communities, our counties and our parishes. We are a proud part of the most historic and honorable law enforcement office in the land: the Office of the Sheriff.

In closing, I want to thank the work of the conference committee. They have put in many hours of planning and preparation. I will ask each of them to stand and remain standing.

The two brave and fearless leaders of the committee were Sgt. Janis Pickell and Cpl. Brad DeSando. The other hard-working committee members were Sgt. Barbara Marchiano. Sgt. Matt Tocydowski, Cpl. Noah Hughes, Cpl. Joseph Woulfe, Cpl. Robert Burkley, Deputy Frank DeJesse, Donna Walton, Butch Dutter and Jose Mestre.

I want to thank Bill Sooy from MAGLOCLLEN.

And a big thank you to my better half, the woman who puts up with me, and that is a very big job. My sweetheart, my significant other, and my friend, the Sheriff of Chester County.

Once again, I am honored to serve as the President of the Deputy Sheriffs' Association of Pennsylvania. I thank you for that privilege.
